

INFORMED CONSENT FOR IN-PERSON SERVICES DURING COVID-19 PUBLIC HEALTH CRISIS

This document contains important information about our decision (yours and mine) to resume in-person services in light of the COVID-19 public health crisis. Please read this carefully and let me know if you have any questions. When you sign this document, it will be an official agreement between us.

Decision to Meet Face-to-Face

We have agreed to meet in person for some or all future sessions, however if there is a resurgence of the pandemic or if other health or safety concerns arise, either of us will reserve the right to postpone sessions or move to an online platform for the wellbeing and safety for all.

Risks of Opting for In-Person Services

You understand that by coming to the studio location, you are assuming the risk of exposure to the COVID-19 (or other public health risks). This risk may increase if you travel by public transportation, cab, or ridesharing service.

Your Responsibility to Minimize Your Exposure To obtain services in person, you agree to take certain precautions which will help keep everyone (you, me, and our families, and other clients) safe from exposure, sickness and possible death. If you do not adhere to these safeguards, it may result in our starting/returning to an online/virtual arrangement.

- You will only keep your in-person appointment if you are symptom free.
- You will wash your hands or use alcohol-based hand sanitizer (which will be provided) when you enter the building.
- You will take steps in between appointments to minimize your exposure to COVID-19
- If you find that you have been in contact with someone who is positive for COVID-19 you will immediately let me know and cease in-person sessions.
- If you are at high risk of exposure by way of your job or daily practices, you will consider opting for online services.

I may change the above precautions if additional local, state or federal orders or guidelines are published. If that happens, we will discuss all necessary changes.

My commitment to minimize exposure I have taken steps to reduce the risk of spreading the COVID-19 within the studio and I have posted my efforts in the studio. Please let me know if you have questions about these efforts.

Informed Consent This agreement supplements the general informed consent that we agreed to at the start of our work together. Your signature below shows that you agree to these terms and conditions.
